

SPRINGBOARD DANSE MONTREAL

SPRINGBOARD DANSE MONTREAL 2022 2022 PARTICIPANT CONTRACT

Springboard Danse through its Springboard Danse Montréal program is inviting you to join a professional experience with established international dance companies and choreographers (referred to herein as the “project”). We will function as a company for the next three weeks. You are expected to attend all classes, workshops and rehearsals as assigned. If you are sick, injured or indisposed, you must contact the office in the morning before 10:00 am so that the proper individuals can be notified. As in many professional companies you will get a warning after one class missed without prior permission. After the second class or any rehearsal missed without permission, you will be asked to leave the project with no refund.

Once you are cast for the Principal Companies, Fellows, Resident, and Emerging Choreographers participating in the project, it is a binding commitment and you are required to attend all rehearsals as scheduled.

Principal Companies, Fellows, Resident, and Emerging Choreographers, in consultation with Springboard Danse, make all casting decisions. On occasion, they may change your role to fit the needs of the work as well as for the benefit of your process. In committing to the project you agree to accept the roles and changes in roles assigned to you by the Principal Companies, Fellows, Resident, and Emerging Choreographers.

An integral part of our agreements with the visiting artists, there will be absolutely no use of cell phones or laptops during rehearsals. It is strictly prohibited for you to film any of the rehearsals or the showing on June 25th, even for personal review without permission from the Principal Companies, Fellows, Resident and Emerging Choreographers and Alexandra Wells. If we find that you have filmed or posted on social media without permission, you will be asked to leave the project with no refund.

You agree to credit Springboard Danse or Springboard Danse Montréal in any biographical material if you should obtain employment, immediately or in the future, with any of the choreographers and companies participating in the project or auditions held at Springboard Danse Montréal.

You may be asked to leave the project if you engage in unprofessional conduct or do not follow any of the terms and conditions outlined above. If you are removed from the project for any of these reasons, which determination shall be made at the sole discretion of Springboard Danse, you will not receive a refund.
